PREFACE.

The coins described in the following pages are the property of a number of collectors. Among nearly every lot will be found interesting coins, and it will be a good opportunity to purchase. All the coins are guaranteed genuine. As the time before sale is short, collectors will oblige us and benefit themselves by giving a prompt perusal and forwarding their bids at the earliest moment. At our last sale we had 145 bidders, and it is quite a task to enter all of the bids.

The coins will be on exhibition from 9 to 12.30 A. M. day of sale. They are sold so much each piece no matter how many are in a lot. The only exception to this rule is when proof sets are sold, and then they are sold by the set.

Priced catalogues will be supplied after sale for 40c. Collectors will oblige us by enclosing stamps for the 40c. when ordering a priced catalogue.

UNITED STATES SILVER DOLLARS.

624 1794 Very good. The head excellent; lower part of date not struck up sharp. Stars good. R. Eagle and wreath very good. STATES OF weakly struck. Cost $70. Excessively rare. It may be an item of interest when we state that in the 26 years we have been in the coin business (and devoting all of our time to it) that in the thousands of lots of coins we have been offered and bought has a 1794 dollar in any state of preservation been offered us. Its rarity is far greater than the price it sells for would indicate.

625 1795 Tall bust resembling closely that on the 1794. R. Three leaves under eagle's wings. Fine.
